Terms & Conditions

- A deposit is due at the time your PK appointment is scheduled.
- Your deposit is refundable only when notice of cancellation is given at least (2) weeks prior to the first day of your scheduled panchakarma program. If notice is given less than 2 weeks before your scheduled program, the deposit will be retained by the Ayurvedic Institute.
- Your deposit is not refundable if you have not returned the necessary documents within the 2 week deadline and we determine that panchakarma is contraindicated (not advised) for you.
- Payment may be made by MasterCard, Visa, or by personal check if your scheduled appointment is more than a month away.
- Checks must be received one month prior to your appointment date to allow time for the check to clear.
- If your appointment is less than one month away, the deposit must be made by credit card.
- The balance of your PK bill is due by 3 PM on Friday, or your last day of PK, whichever comes first. We accept MC/Visa, cash and personal checks drawn on U.S. banks only.
- If you are coming from another country, please plan on paying with U.S. currency or a bank draft from a U.S. bank.
- There may be charges for additional herbs, products or services.
- The Ayurvedic Institute does not accept health insurance.
- COVID Refund Notice: If you must cancel due to COVID prior to your arrival, please provide a copy of a COVID positive test and we will refund in full. If you have to discontinue PK due to symptoms during your PK therapy, we will prorate charges for the days that you did get therapies.
- NOTE: Please do not make your travel arrangements until you have received definite confirmation of your panchakarma program appointment date.

Senior Discount: 10% discount for seniors age 60 and older (does not apply to housing)

Gratuities: Sometimes people ask us if gratuities are appropriate. Gratuities are not expected nor necessary, but are always appreciated. Please see the PK receptionist if you are so inclined.
